- Why wouldn't we want a standard of excellence for the profession?
- Isn't the National Exam for State Licensure (NESL) a good option for a licensing exam?
- Why would a private Certification Board claim that they protect the public with their credential?
- What is the resulting impact of public protection versus public information?
- Is it a conflict of interest for a State Board to use the MBLEx if one of the State Board members is on the Board of the FSMTB?

What paperwork do I need to submit to take the MBLEx?
All you need to apply to take the MBLEx is a completed Application Form and fee payment. There are no transcripts or letters required – it really is a simple process.
