M-I just re-sent the bid

Monday, June 5, 2017-6:04 am

I want a confirmation as to when you are going to be here to start this job

M- We won't be able to use equipment until it dries some due to the mud.-6:52 am

I would like a start date. With these delays I may have to rearrange things with my work as I schedule things out far in advance...I show no rain thru June 19..it seems like you could start by mid week... .We have upheld our end... -1:31 pm

We did not get the rain like other areas so we need you here Wednesday.-3:31 pm

M-Ok OK-3:32 pm

Monday, June 6, 2017-11:50 am

M-We are about to shut the business down I will keep you informed of what we do-12:18 PM

I will need my deposit back.. Where do we meet to get it back today-12:19 pm

M- Not today-12:21 pm

Then when and where?-12:23 pm

M-Don't know yet when I find out I will let you know-12:24 pm

M-1/4 see. My account was hit for 10000.00 in order to get to your job I have to finish the two jobs that were delayed due to rain in San Antonio. That is the o

2/4-nly way I can get revue back while my attorney handles the charge back. But since you demand me being there tomorrow when I got 2 other jobs still open

3/4-puts me in a bind. So we either back up and be civil about this and let me finish what I got due to rain or we have no other option to shut down until we

4/4 get this resolved -12:33 PM

M-Most people understand what rain plays in completing a job and moving to the next-12:35 pm

M-I had customers whose job was to start next week and they called me up and rescheduled their own job knowing the rain. Delay.-12:40 PM

M-I haven't heard from you did you want us to come Monday after we finish the other two jobs that were delayed due to rain.-12:42 PM

M-Hello-12:45 PM

Friday, June 9, 2017-1:07 PM
