Greetings,

I am not willing to lie and jeopardize my integrity for a job. You have changed the title on my last 4 jobs to appear as if I have done something that is not accurate. I have a reputation in this community and I take integrity seriously. You are giving this industry a very bad name and your unethical behavior is a terrible representation of humanity.

Take me off your list and never call me again.

I am at work and open to speaking with you but not sure what you mean by attending your call and why we have had to go back and forth with so many calls?
