In compliance with the offer of a 7 day refusal and declination of the Diamond Property Sampler plan, we wish to decline the program. We are still reading the information on the contract, part of which has been redacted or "whited out", and have researched on line what we signed up for, and it is definitely NOT FOR US. We have a fax number for the Barclay Bank and will contact them that we are canceling the "Sampler Purchase".

We are still on the property and will drop a copy of this declination by your center, and send a copy by registered mail. The product offered is represented very negatively on the internet, and while we had better expectations, we told you, up front, we didn't have the financial resources for the commitment. That is when the "closer" was brought in, and inspite of our declination we succumbed. We, tried to be honest about our finances, and wished you had stopped wasting both your time and ours. We apologize for the inconvenience.

Sincerely, Paula and David Barker
