Hello Sue,

We can certainly understand your frustration.

We hope that you can understand that our locations are independently owned and operated. We are working to ensure that the owner does fulfill his financial obligation to members of his studio. You can follow up with Craig Thompson directly at thompsoncraige@gmail.com and/or cthompson@ilovekickboing.com. Please allow 5-7 business days for a response as we're sure he's been inundated with requests. Feel free to reach back out to us here at HQ if you haven't received a response by then.

Thank you,
