Payment type

Travel Credit

Travel Credits are generated from a previously cancelled vacation package. You should only select this form of payment if you have been issued Travel Credits from prior reservations (which are 8 alpha-numeric digits).

- If you want to take advantage of any airline credits as outlined in your Travel Credit issuance email, you will need to call our Contact Center to book your trip.
- Travel Credits cannot be redeemed when using the UpLift pay Monthly option.
- Travel Credits must be applied to the booking as the first form of payment and prior to any other forms of payment being applied (ex: gift cards, credit cards, etc.)
- When paying with Travel Credits, all travel must be completed prior to the Travel Credits' expiration date.
- Travel Credits from up to two different reservations can be applied.
- The passenger's first and last name must exactly match the name on the Travel Credits being applied as payment towards the reservation.
