Your library and its future depends on you! There is no other institution that reaches a greater number of people and so positively impacts their lives. Libraries connect us to the world. When you support the Friends, you support the legacy libraries provide.

Support the Library you love!

FRIENDS
of the Anderson County LIBRARY

What do the Friends do?

-  Promote the library and its services to the community.
-  Talk to elected officials about library needs.
-  Support speakers at the annual meeting.
-  Participate in and support the Starburst Storytellers Festival and other special events for adults and children.
-  Hold fundraisers for various library needs and programs.
-  Operate a community bookstore and cafe.

Friends raise money annually through memberships, events, and book and food sales. These funds go toward new materials for customers to check out, Summer Reading programs for children and teens, and free cultural and educational programming not found elsewhere in the community!
