Approved!

Your check transaction is approved and your funds have been sent to your selected account(s).

Most banks, prepaid card issuers and PayPal, will make your funds available in your account in minutes so you can immediately make purchases, pay bills or access cash at an ATM. Some banks may take up to 48 hours. Most credit card issuers apply credit card bill payments by the next business day though some do not post payments for two business days.

Below is your transaction receipt. You can also access your transaction history at any time in the Ingo Money App.
